Filey – from RNLI

Our Y3, 4 and 5 children had a fabulous day in Filey on Monday and Mrs McLaughlin was delighted to receive this email the following morning.

Mrs Mc Laughlin

As Chairman of the Filey Lifeboat Station (and working in our Souvenir shop yesterday) I would firstly like to thank your pupils and staff for visiting us and hearing from our Education Volunteers about the RNLI and the Filey Lifeboat Station. Secondly for very kindly asking your children to bring £2 each to be spent in the shop that was very much appreciated as we rely 100% on voluntary contributions for our existence.

As a long Standing Chair of Governors myself I would like to congratulate and thank all who came along for the excellent behavior and politeness of the pupils (and staff), it is a great credit to your school.

We hope to see pupils from your school again in the future.

Kind regards

David Wilson

Chairman

Filey Lifeboat Station

We are all very proud of the way the children represented our school!
